

BACK BY POPULAR DEMAND – A SECOND COMMUNITY DIALOGUE ON

THE “OCCUPY” MOVEMENT: WHAT IS IT?

Mountain View Neighborhood Library
Saturday, February 11
1pm to 4pm

Let's Talk Anchorage is a joint program of the Anchorage Public Libraries, Alaska Common Ground, and the UAF Cooperative Extension Service. Our vision is a community of citizens who gather easily and often for public dialogue or deliberation on timely topics. LTA can help plan, publicize, and facilitate public gatherings that are welcoming, stimulating, and satisfying.

Let's Talk Anchorage is pleased to offer a repeat community dialogue on the Occupy Movement: What is it?" at the Mt. View Community Library from 1 to 4 pm on Saturday, February 11. Participants in the first dialogue commented on their experience: "Everyone should continue this discourse." "The movement is valuable because it is a process of public dialogue." "I valued the diversity of people in the Occupy Anchorage movement." "The high point of event was the people."
