ALASKA PUBLIC MEDIA STAFF HELPS SHAPE INDUSTRY BEST PRACTICES

From the executive team to staff, professional development and thought leadership are used to serve the community locally and nationally.

Alaska Public Media participates in national and local organizations to continually improve our skills and learn and help shape industry best practices. On the national level, our executive team hold board roles and membership for groups like the PBS Board of Directors. On the local level, they participate with United Way Anchorage, Alaska Press Club, and Women's Power League of Alaska. Some are chairs for PBS Program Advisory Council, America's Public Television Stations, Executive Content Managers for Public Media, Alaska Broadcasters Association, and Alaska Center for Excellence in Journalism Advisory Board. Staff also sit on important industry committees such as Northwest Regional EMMY, PBS, U.S. INPUT, ITVS, and POV, Public Radio Program Directors Strategic Planning Committee, NETA, and PBS Traffic Advisory Committee.

In addition, our team has participated in many panels over the years for PBS and NETA conferences. Of the nearly dozen in 2023 alone, staff was part of a handful of conference panels at the 2023 NETA conference. One, 'American Graduate Jobs Explained: The Station Journey to the 'Missing Middle', gave our staff the opportunity to share our experience being part of the nationwide project to reach and engage high schoolers about careers that do not require 4 years degrees. A second, 'Multi-Generational Family Engagement is Successful When You Invest in the Parents and Educate Their Children', allowed us to share our strategies and emerging practices working with multi-generational families ages 2-60, especially those in under-resourced communities and neighborhoods. We also shared stories of success and how we have pivoted with partners to work with multi-generational families.

In 2023, senior staff worked with the Poynter Institute as part of a Digital Transformation Project to better serve our community on these growing platforms. Alaska Public Media was one of only 10 stations selected. This was the second time AKPM has been selected for industry training on digital media platforms by the Poynter Institute.

IT'S MUSHING SEASON! ALASKA PUBLIC MEDIA IS BACK ON THE IDITAROD TRAIL

Here's how to follow our coverage of this year's competitive race.

It's that time of year: The Iditarod Trail Sled Dog Race kicks off on March 2nd in Anchorage!

Alaska Public Media will be hitting the trail along with dozens of mushers and hundreds of sled dogs to bring you the stories of this year's 1,000-mile race.

We're excited to have Alaska News Nightly host Casey Grove as our trail reporter! Casey has long hosted our Iditapod podcast. But this year he'll be trading his studio setup for a mobile recording kit as he flies in a small plane from checkpoint to checkpoint, talking to not only the mushers dashing to Nome but also the Alaskans who live in the communities along the way.

Also this year, Tegan Hanlon — veteran Iditarod reporter turned digital editor — returns to write our daily Iditarod newsletter. The newsletter is your one-stop shop for race coverage, including the latest reports and photos from Casey, plus a daily feature on one of the canine competitors.

We hope you'll follow along!

Ways to follow our Iditarod coverage:

- Bookmark alaskapublic.org/Iditarod to keep tabs on the latest Iditarod coverage, from breaking news to feature stories to photos from the trail.
- Sign up for our Iditarod newsletter at alaskapublic.org/newsletters. It'll be delivered straight to your inbox from the start of the Iditarod until there's a 2024 champion.
- Tune into KSKA 91.1 FM during the Alaska Morning News and Alaska News Nightly or check your local listings for statewide coverage.
- Follow Alaska Public Media on social media for behind the scenes from reporters and photographers, and immediate access to stories as they break. (@alaskapublic on Instagram and Facebook, @AKpublicnews on Twitter/X).

Our Iditarod coverage is made possible in part by the generous support of Matanuska Valley Federal Credit Union.

The most beautiful and challenging railroads in the world, seen from above.

This six-part series follows some of the world's most extraordinary railway journeys from above and on the ground, taking the audience on an adventure of a lifetime. The series features routes from across the globe including Australia's Outback Railway, the Darjeeling Himalayan Railway, the Copper Canyon Railway, Canada's Wilderness Railroad, The Glacier Express and Norway's Bergen Railway.

The camera flies above spectacular scenery and the videographers explore exceptional engineering; meeting the people who maintain and run these incredible railroads as well as those who live alongside them, and bringing these stories and views to you.

Watch the series on Wednesdays at 10 p.m., starting March 13, on Alaska Public Media TV. Or, stream the episodes now with AK Passport on PBS.

ORIGINAL DRAMA SERIES ALICE & JACK WILL HAVE YOU INVESTED IN A STORY YOU CAN'T LOOK AWAY FROM

A one-of-a-kind love story for MASTERPIECE fans.

Created and written by Victor Levin, Alice & Jack is a love story for the ages. When Alice (Andrea Riseborough) and Jack (Domhnall Gleeson) first meet they're bound by a connection so powerful it seems nothing can break it, but it turns out their path is more complicated than immediate happiness and togetherness. Life and their individual emotional complexities result in a series that is honest, intimate, and surprisingly funny; as it traces two very different people over 15 years. Alice & Jack from MASTERPIECE shows love in all its unexpected, technicolor, kaleidoscopic beauty.

Packed with a star-studded cast, the story explores the seminal question of whether the bonds between us are stronger than the forces that would tear us apart. As viewers become increasingly emotionally invested in Alice & Jack, as individuals and as a unit, they will experience the same rollercoaster of emotions that the characters feel.

In a surprisingly realistic depiction of romance, the pair wrestle with priorities, consequences and timing. Tune in for the series premiere Sunday, March 17, at 9 p.m. on Alaska Public Media TV. And bring the popcorn, you won't want to look away!
