20 DAYS IN MARIUPOL WINS BEST DOCUMENTARY FEATURE FILM Add Oscar Award-winning to the film's list of accolades.

The film, 20 Days in Mariupol, documents the Russian siege of the city of Mariupol in Ukraine. It is a visceral, first-person view of the beginning of the war in Ukraine, told through the perspective of filmmaker and Ukrainian AP video journalist Mstyslav Chernov. Chernov and his colleagues, photographer Evgeniy Maloletka and field producer Vasilisa Stepanenko, were the last international reporters to remain in Mariupol as Russian troops attacked the city. Together, the 2023 Pulitzer Prize-winning journalists documented what would become defining images of the war: dying children, mass graves, the bombing of a maternity hospital, and more.

Now, the documentary produced by the PBS series FRONTLINE at GBH in Boston and The Associated Press, has won the Oscar® for Best Documentary Feature Film at the 96th Academy Awards®. The powerful, first-person view of the beginning of Russia's full-scale invasion of Ukraine, is Chernov's first feature film, after he spent nearly a decade covering international conflicts, including the Russia-Ukraine war, for The Associated Press.

"This is the first Oscar in Ukrainian history, and I'm honored but probably I will be the first director on this stage to say I wish I never made this film," said Chernov. He went on to remind the public that "we can make sure that the history record is set straight, that the truth prevails, and that the people of Mariupol and those who've given their lives will never be forgotten—because cinema forms memory and memory forms history."

"20 Days in Mariupol is a testament to the power and importance of eyewitness journalism," said AP Senior Vice President and Executive Editor Julie Pace. "Though difficult to watch, it's essential for the world to see the facts as they unfolded. We are so pleased to have worked with FRONTLINE on this important project."

Following a decorated run on the film festival circuit, 20 Days in Mariupol had its U.S. broadcast premiere on PBS stations in November 2023 and is now available to stream online at pbs.org/frontline, in the PBS App, on FRONTLINE's YouTube channel and on the PBS Documentaries Amazon Prime Channel.

JULIUS CAESAR: THE MAKING OF A DICTATOR

A docudrama told through the eyes of experts.

Julius Caesar: The Making Of A Dictator is a new three-part BBC-produced historical docudrama that explores how the nearly five-centuries-old Roman democracy was overthrown in just 16 years. The story of a brazen power grab that saw Julius Caesar consolidate the vast Roman Republic in his own hands, the series is told through the eyes of an expert cast of British and American historians, scholars, and political operatives (including a former head of MI5, the United Kingdom's domestic counter-intelligence and security agency).

Illustrated with artful dramatic moments and packed with contemporary resonances, the series has all the elements of the best political thrillers, with complex power dynamics playing out for enormous stakes. Tune in for the episodes on three consecutive Tuesdays, April 2 through April 16, at 8 p.m. on Alaska Public Media TV. Or, stream after each premiere on pbs.org or the PBS App.

CELEBRATE EARTH MONTH WITH PBS

Learn about the natural wonders of our planet and how to be a good steward of them.

Every year, the month of April serves as a reminder to learn more and do more to be good stewards of the Earth, culminating with Earth Day on April 22. This year, PBS offers viewers a wealth of content to celebrate the natural wonders of our planet and learn how to protect them. Here are a few of our favorites:

NOVA: Chasing Carbon Zero

Can the U.S. reach net-zero carbon emissions by 2050 and avoid the biggest impacts of climate change? Experts say it can be done. Here's the technology that could get us there.

American Experience: The Sun Queen

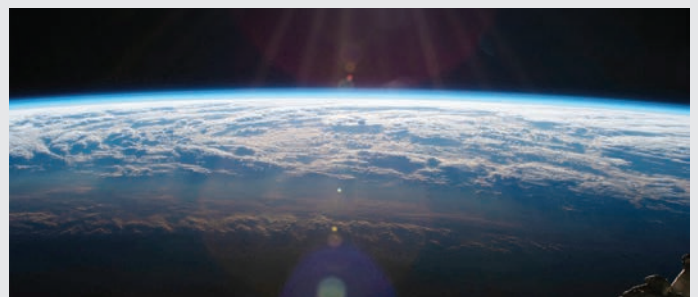

Scientist Mária Telkes dedicated her career to harnessing the power of the sun. Though undercut and thwarted by her male colleagues, she persevered to design the first successfully solar-heated house in 1948 and held more than 20 patents.

A Qayak to Carry Us

Sugpiat people come home to Kodiak Island

Merging Indigenous knowledge with western science, Dr. Sven Haakanson and other Sugpiat people in Akhiok pass along the ingenuity of traditional knowledge in a living context to young Sugpiat while building a kayak from wood gathered on the treeless beaches of Cape Alitak.

MR BATES VS THE POST OFFICE FROM MASTERPIECE: A TRUE STORY

Follow one of the greatest miscarriages of justice in British legal history.

When money started to seemingly disappear from its local branches, the government-owned (UK) Post Office wrongly blamed their own managers for its apparent loss. For more than a decade, hundreds were accused of theft and fraud, and many were even sent to prison—leaving lives, marriages, and reputations in ruins. But the issue was actually caused by errors in the Post Office's own computer system—something it denied for years. Revealing a shocking David vs. Goliath fight for justice, this is the story of the decent ordinary people who were relentlessly pursued, coerced and controlled by a powerful corporation, and their ongoing battle, against seemingly insurmountable odds, to right so many horrific wrongs.

Mr Bates vs The Post Office is the UK's most-watched drama of 2024 so far and ITV's biggest new drama launch in over a decade averaging 13.1 million viewers, with hundreds of thousands still catching up on ITVX every day, beating the launch of Downton Abbey in 2010. Following the UK broadcast on ITV, the series set off a firestorm of public interest and, within eight days of premiering, the Prime Minister announced a new law to pardon the victims who had been wrongly convicted.

Susanne Simpson, MASTERPIECE Executive Producer said, "Mr Bates vs The Post Office is a testament to the people who persisted in their search for truth and justice. The producers of this powerful drama have reignited the public interest in the Subpostmasters' 20-year quest for justice. I'm incredibly proud that MASTERPIECE will bring this story to the American audience."

The stellar ensemble case is led by BAFTA award-winning Toby Jones as real-life hero Alan Bates, the fired postal worker who marshaled his peers and campaigned for decades (and still does) to pursue restitution. Watch the premiere on Sunday, April 7, at 8 p.m. on Alaska Public Media TV. Each episode will only be available for online streaming for 14 days after their broadcast. Don't miss out and be sure to tune in or stream with AK Passport on the PBS App or pbs.org.
