How to help a family in need this holiday season

Neighborhood GIFT

Bless your neighbors with gifts of food and toys this holiday season! The faith community is joining together this holiday season to collectively distribute food and toys to those in need.

Here's how you can help:

- Organize your church, temple or office to collect food or toys.
- Volunteer to help set up on December 21st or distribute on December 22nd.

FOOD DONATIONS

Drop off your food by Friday, December 18th at Food Bank of Alaska, 2121 Spar Avenue, 272-3663.
Or drop food off at one of the distribution sites (see other side) on Tuesday, December 22nd.

WANTED: FOOD!

- Gravy mix
- Canned veggies
- Dinner rolls
- Stuffing mix
- Roasting pans

TOY DONATIONS

Neighborhood GIFT serves infants and children up to age 12. Drop off new, unwrapped toys at The Salvation Army Angel Trees and US Marine Corps Toys for Tots sites at most major retailers.
For Angel Tree locations, call The Salvation Army at 276-2515.

Gift certificates to movie theaters, restaurants, music, or clothing stores make great gifts for older kids.

Donations can also be made online at www.foodbankofalaska.org or www.salvationarmy.org/alaska
